Miles From Bloemfontein.The Boers Met With Heavy Losses in Yesterday's Battle—Lord Roberts May Capture the Free State Capital With Only Slight Losses.London, March 8.—A dispatch received this morning from Poplar Grave Camp says Gen. French is pursuing the Boers, who are in hastily retreat.The Boers suffered heavily in yesterday's battle and they are apparently demoralized.The main force of the British is now near Abraham's Kraal, only twenty miles from Bloemfontein, the capital of the Orange Free State.The British occupied Burgersdorp last night unopposed.On the queen's return to the city this morning there was an immense enthusiasm exceeding the jubilee.
All along the route from Paddington station to Buckingham palace the crowds are continuously cheering.
The queen was greatly affected. She walked from the car to her carriage leaning on the arm of an Indian attendant. Her lameness was scarcely perceptible. She is in better health than in a long time.

Another Revolution.

SANTO DOMINGO, March 8.—The government has discovered that a political movement of opposition is in progress. Several arrests and a change of cabinet may take place when the city becomes quiet. Later it became known that Gen. Pepin, former governor of Santiago de los Caballeros was revolting against the government, and government troops were sent against him. A state of siege has been declared and martial law has been established in the southern portion of the island.

A Theatre Affair.

PARIS, March 8.—The famous theatre Francaise is burning, with no hope of preventing its total destruction. Many actresses are in the building preparing for a matinee and heroic efforts are being made to save them. Director Jules Claretie thinks the building was set afire.

will be led to the gallows to pay the penalty for murdering Victoria Watkins. After reaching the gallows he will be permitted to address those assembled; ministers will pray for him, then the trap will be sprung.
Jefferson street, near the jail, has been thronged with colored people today, all anxious to get a peep at the condemned man, and his cell has been filled with ministers of the gospel, playing, singing and lecturing.

Weather Conditions.

The centre of high pressure has moved to the North Atlantic coast and the northwestern low area has greatly deepened since yesterday, resulting in marked rises in temperature in that region.The gulf disturbance has moved from the Texas coast to Western Florida, attended by general cloudiness and rainfall: 1.69 inches at Jacksonburg, 1.08 inches at Meridian, 1.49 inches at Atlanta and 1.04 inches at Pensacola were the largest amounts reported.No decided thermal changes occurred except in the Northwestern districts, where it ranges from 10 to 16 degrees warmer.At St. Paul, the 6th inst., ice in the Missouri river ranged in thick-

THE QUEEN'S IRI-SH VISIT.

Newspapers Give the News a Chilling Reception.DUBLIN, March 8.—The newspapers give a chilling reception to the news of the queen's intended visit to Ireland.Freeman's Journal says: The cavalry of the Irish will ensure a respectful reception, but it is impossible to congratulate her Majesty on the opportunity chosen for the royal visit after a boycott so long and persistently maintained.The Independent says: Nation-lists will have no other desire but that her majesty should receive at the hands of the Irish the respectful welcome, due to her station and high personal character.The Daily Express, after remarking that the visit is intended as a most marked and notable expression of the queen's indebtedness to the gallant Irishmen who have served her so nobly in her hour of anxiety cordially assures her that she will receive the heartiest welcome.

THE POLICE COURT.

Five White Boys Arrested and Fined For Disorderly Conduct.There were only a few cases before Mayor Hilliard in the police court this morning.Five white boys, Cammie Vilar, John Hall, Joe Cooper and Raymond Wilson, who were arrested at the Union depot last night while enjoying a card game in the waiting room, and making considerable racket, were each fined $5. No fine was assessed for card playing.Joe Ross, charged with cursing and abusing, was fined $25.The house of Sallie Thompson, situated on East Zarragossa street, known as a bawdy house, was raided last night by Officer Ray, and all of the inmates therein were pulled.
The officer placed a charge against one of them for cursing and using obscene language, but in court this morning he could not tell which one it was, so the whole push was discharged.Eugene J. Hall, the poet and publisher, says that one dose of Fole's Honey and Tar restored his voice when hoarseness threatened to prevent his lecture at Central Music good.—W. A. D'Alemberte.

OUR RIGHTFUL PROPERTY

Mason of Illinois Asks That His Resolution Expressive of Sympathy For the Boers Be Returned by the Committee on Foreign Relations.WASHINGTON, March 7.—Soon after the senate convened today Mr. Sullivan of Mississippi offered a resolution that the Philippines islands are the rightful property, honorably acquired, of the United States; and that "while the unjustified Filipinos continue the present war brought on by them, against the rightful authority of the United States, so long as a single gun in their hands is trained upon our flag, no expression of intention as to the future course of the United States with respect to them should be made by the United States senate."Mr. Sullivan asked that the resolution lie on the table until he should call it up.Mr. Mason of Illinois then gave notice that tomorrow after the morning session he would enter a motion that the committee on foreign relations be discharged from further consideration of his resolution expressive of the senate's sympathy for the Boers in their struggle with Great Britain. He had introduced the resolution on Dec 8."I have no intention of violating the rules of the senate," said Mr. Mason, but it is clearly the intention of the committee on foreign relations to take no action in regard to the resolution and I want it brought into the senate and placed on the calendar."The senate committee on foreign relations summarized the reporting of an amendment to the diplomatic appropriation bill appropriating $30,000 to be paid to Queen Lilioukalani an annuity for an annual pension of $10,- 000 to her as long as she may live.

OPPOSITION TO TREATIES.

Reciprocity Getting Little Encourag-ment In the Senate.WASHINGTON, March 7.—The present indications are that all of the reciprocity treaties framed by John A. Bland under the authority of President Mc-Kinley and the state department will fail of ratification. There has been horrified to all these treaties since their submission to the senate by President McKinley.The prospect seemed to brighten al-ittle for the French treaty when a favorable report was made by the committee on foreign relations by the chairman, Senator Davis of Minnesota. It appears, however, that the report in favor of this treaty was largely a courtesy to Senator Davis, and does not represent the views of all of the Republicans on the committee.Senators Lodge of Massachusetts, Foraker of Ohio and Wolcott of Colorado, three of the seven Republicans, are declared to be against the treaty, and may be supported by Senator Frye of Maine. This would reduce its supporters to three Republicans.Senator Aldrich of Rhode Island, who is at once chairman of the finance committee, and one of the directing ministers of the senate, has already given notice that he will move the reference of the treaty to his committee.Senator Aldrich would have strong grounds for urging reference to his committee, even if there was not opposition to the treaty, for it cuts deep in the revenue from customs and appears, therefore, to be a proper subject for consideration by the committee which deals with revenue and financial problems. Senator Aldrich will undoubtedly have the support of all of the members of the finance committee in this position."Delays are dangerous." Those who have poor, weak, impure blood should take Hood's Sarsaparilla at once. It never disappoints.Eugene Arboua's is headquarters

Pardon Refused.

COLUMBIA, March 7.—A petition for the pardon of Patton Evans of Abbeville county has been refused by Governor McSweeney. The petition is signed by many citizens, states that Evans was only 16 years old at the time of his conviction and that he has been punished sufficiently, having been in prison since 1894. Evans did not kill the man with whom he had a quarrel, but killed his cousin while shooting at the party with whom he had his trouble.

Entertained With Cake-walk.

CHATTANOOGA, March 7.—About 250 members of the National Association of Ticket Agents arrived here today enroute to Atlanta, where the annual convention will be held, commencing tomorrow. The delegation was met by a large committee of citizens and the day was spent here visiting the battlefields.

COSTLY PHILADELPHIA FIRE.

Drygoods District of Quaker City Entails Heavy Losses.PHILADELPHIA, March 7.—A fire entailing an estimated loss of over $700,- 000 occurred early today in the retail drygoods district.The conflagration originated in the engine room of Shoreman Bros. The building was T shaped, fronting on three streets, Eighth, Arch and Cherry.
It is said that while fire was being drawn from the furnaces, sparks communicated with some wastepaper and the little blaze spread with astonishing rapidity to the upper floors.A general alarm was sounded, but all efforts to save the building were fruitless and it was leveled. The loss is placed at $300,000.Marks Bros. drygoods store, adjoining, was partly damaged by smoke and water and their storehouse was completely gutted, entailing an estimated loss of $300,000. The Shoreman building was four stories and Marks' five stories in height.The flames spread to the 6-story building on Cherry street, occupied by Myer-hoff Bros. manufacturers of women's and children's clothing, and the Philadelphia Electric Equipment company.
Nothing was left of this place but the walls. The loss is placed at $300,000.Several smaller buildings were more or less seriously damaged. About 100 persons, men, women and children were thrown out of employment by the fire.

Fell Through Old Bridge.

PITTSBURG, March 7.—The locomotive hauling the Chicago fast freight west on the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago railroad crashed through the steel bridge spanning Robinson street, Allegheny, this morning, dragging the sender and one car with it. Fireman A.
K. Miller of Bolivar, Pa., and Brakeman George DeWald of Pitsburgh, Pa., were killed outright, and Conductor James F. Martin of Pitsburgh, Pa., dangerously injured. The bridge that collapsed is one of the oldest on the Fort Wayne road, and was supposed to have been sufficiently strong for the heaviest locomotive of the modern type.

To Equip a State Guard.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 7.—In the senate today Senator Triplett offered a substitute for his resolution to provide for a committee to investigate the removal of munitions of war from the arsenal to London. The substitute proposes to appropriate $100,000 for the immediate equipment of a state guard under Democratic Governor Beckham and Adjutant General Castles and for the purpose of recovering the canon, cannon, Gatling guns and other military property of the state now in alleged unlawful possession of Republican Governor Taylor.

A Abolition Writes to the Boers.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., March 7.—A. O.
Frey of Decatur, Ala., has received a letter from his aunt, who resides with her son-in-law, Charles Ransom, a missionary at Van Rensselaer, near Ladysmith, in which she refers to the Boers as "wicked, untruthful and dishonest." She further writes that the Boers have driven many of the missionaries from their homes and robbed them of their cattle, household effects, etc. In conversation with a prominent Boer, her son-in-law was told that they would blow up the gold and diamond mines as a last resort.In all stages of Nasal Catarrh there

Bravery of Canadian Troops In South

Africa Will Be Rewarded—Story of Senator Elkins—Social Season In Manila.WASHINGTON, March 9.—[Special.]— It took a diplomat of long experience to connect the surrender of Cronje in South Africa with the Alaskan boundary dispute. They are separated from each other about as far as they can be, and the relation may be scarcely perceptible, but almost anything is possible in the realm of diplomacy. This gentleman called attention to the fact that it was Canadian soldiers, the darling and picked men who went from the country north of us to faraway Africa, who crept up first and dashed forward into close range of the Boers under Cronje, gaining a place which made his position untenable and forced his surrender. "When the war is over," said my diplomatic friend, "it will be found that the Canadians have rendered the British government great service. This will be but one of the many instances where the favor of a colony of England has rendered the mother country great assistance and contributed largely to the success of the British cause. When her victorious troops return, the British heart will beat with pleasure. Demands which the Canadians may make relating to the boundary will be backed up by Great Britain. In fact, after the splendid showing which Canada and the other colonies have made with their soldiers in South Africa, the British government will desire to show its appreciation by standing by them in any dispute they may have with other countries. Not only in the Alaskan boundary, but in all other questions of dispute between Canada and the United States, where heretofore Great Britain has counseled moderation of the Canadian demands, there is sure to be a change, and these demands will be reinforced by the British foreign office."

Defeated by a Handshake.

Major Martin Maghlin of Montana, for many years a delegate in congress, tells this good one on Senator Elkins of West Virginia:
"Elkins was a delegate from New Mexico 25 years ago, and I represented Montana in the same capacity. Elkins was very anxious to have New Mexico admitted, as all delegates were to have their various territories made states, and was sure of coming to the senate if he got the state in. He devoted his entire time to the cause, and, with the great energy he possessed, he secured a majority of even a Democratic house in favor of admission. Success seemed assured. And here is where he lost.
Burrows came to the house from Michigan, the same Burrows who is now United States senator. It was in the Kuklux times, and bitter sectional feeling existed. Burrows made the most bitter speech of the session, full of fire of youth and the venom of a partisan.
At its conclusion his Republican partisans crowded around him offering congratulations in the usual manner, shaking hands with him and smiling their approval. While this was going on, Elkins came in. He hadn't heard a word of the speech and knew nothing of what it was about, but he saw the handshaking going on, thought it was a good thing and went in among the rest. No more hearty congratulations were extended, no more effusive words of praise were spoken, than those by the big New Mexico delegate. As he passed down the aisle he was met by a prominent southern leader and one of those who had made Elkins' bill assured. "Confound you," he said, "that kiss your admission bill. You can't approve a speech like that against the south and get our votes?" And the southerner was right."

Terrible sores would break out on plains that the game of tennis, which is the prevailing sport in the Philippine capital, is growing in popularity and has so increased that it has been found necessary to construct new courts. The cool hours of the morning and evening are chosen for this sport.

Golf has not yet made its appearance, but the subject of links is being discussed as a possibility. The difficulty of selecting a site suitable and keeping it in good condition are obstacles that have discouraged the promoters. Owing to the long rainy seasons golf is only practicable at Manila for a brief period of each year. From this discussion of general topics the social editor then enters into the usual routine of balls, receptions and dinners, which to the readers must be comforting reminders of social life at home. As customary in this country, each event is "one of the most delightful," and the decorations are generally "the most elaborate of the season," all of which tends to lend a homelike air to the column.
ARTHUR W. DUNN.We have saved many doctor bills since we began using Chamberlain's Cough Remedy in our home. We keep a bottle open all the time and whenever any of my family or myself begin to catch cold we begin to use the Cough Remedy, and as a result we never have to send away for a doctor and incur a large doctor bill, for Chamberlain's Cough Remedy never fails to cure. It is certainly a medicine of great merit and worth.—D. S. MEARNS, General Merchant and Farmer, Mattie, Red-
